

NCC 'A' certificate exam conducted across 21 centres of the State

IMPHAL, Feb 10: All the units of NCC Group Imphal, conducted the 'A' certificate exam across 21 centres in Manipur simultaneously today.

A statement issued by PIB (DW) mentioned that total number of 1403 cadets from 78 schools appeared in the exam. NCC starts with "A" certificate and then "B" and then "C", which is the last and top certificate of NCC.

Today, an NCC 'C' certificate holder has many benefits. Many competitive exams have reservation for 'C' certificate holders in terms of awarding ranks. All the A and B certificate holders get benefit and preference for admission in many universities.

There are many security agencies - both private and government, who prefer recruiting NCC 'C' certificate holders thereby giving them an edge over other candidates with a handsome pay.

For the candidates who aspire to join the defence forces, NCC 'C' certificate is a golden opportunity for them to go to SSB directly.

These candidates are exempted from giving the common entrance exam and are called directly for SSB.

NCC 'C' certificate holders will have following benefits over non-holders in defence. If a candidate clears his/her CDSE and subsequent SSB, he will have the following reservation in various academies. A separate merit list is prepared for NCC cadets with 'C' certificate. IMA - 13-15 vacancies reserved for 'C' Certificate (Army Wing) holders. INA - 05-08 vacancies reserved for 'C' Certificate (Naval Wing) holders.

Special Entry (Men and Women): OTA Chennai - 50 vacancies for 'C' certificate holders for NCC Spl Entry (non tech)/AFA Hyderabad - 10% vacancies reserved for 'C' certificate Air Wing holders in all courses.

If a candidate wants to join the defence as Soldier GD/clk/skt/tech/tdn cat, he will be eligible for many benefits.

Holders of 'C' certificate who have participated in Republic Day parade, will be exempted from CEE for rect sol clk/skt, sol tech and sol NA cat and will be awarded 100 percent marks in lieu of CEE. Other Benefits of 'C' certificate for ORs, Sailors, Airmen include 5 to 10 percent bonus marks awarded for recruitment, 2 to 10 bonus marks are awarded for recruitment in PMF. In Department of telecommunication, Bonus marks are awarded for recruitment. In CRPF, NCC cadets holding degree are eligible for recruitment to gazetted posts. In NCC, opportunities lie as Civilian Gliding instructors/Girl Cadet Instructors/ Whole Time Lady Officers.

In State Govts, preference is given for State Services in certain States. In Private sector, industries give preference to NCC certificate holders for various jobs related with the field of security.

The Non-Tangible Benefits while serving in NCC are that in the Annual Training Camps the cadets make a lot of friends from various schools and colleges of the city.

Republic Day Camp at Delhi (RDC): How can anyone else get a chance to march at Rajpath while still studying! Selected cadets get to undergo Parajumping at PTS, Agra along with Indian commandos and get to wear the coveted "Para Wings". All India Trekking Expeditions helps in trekking in various hill stations and other places of interest. All India Mountaineering Expedition helps in Basic and Advanced Mountaineering course for selected cadets. In addition, there are attachments with Army Units, Air Force Stations, Naval Bases/ Establishment/ Ships/ Sea Training, Service Hospitals.

Opportunities abound in adventure activities like Water Skiing/Snow Skiing Courses, Snow & Ice (Condensed) Course, Sailing expedition, NRAI Matches, Scuba Diving Course International Youth Exchange Programme, Foreign cruise (Navy or Coast Guard).

Air Wing Cadets get to fly Micro light aircraft as part of their training. NCC is not just any other organization that trains youth for the defence of the country, although it was started with that aim. But today, it has come a long way from then and the aim of NCC is developing character, comradeship, discipline, a secular outlook, the spirit of adventure and ideals of selfless service amongst young citizens. Further, it aims at creating a pool of organized, trained and motivated youth with leadership qualities in all walks of life, who will serve the Nation regardless of which career they choose.

Association condemns

IMPHAL, Feb 10: The All Manipur Rickshaw Drivers' and Pullers' Welfare Association (AMRDPWR) has strongly condemned the Citizenship Amendment Bill 2016 which was passed by the Lok Sabha on January 8.

A press release issued by the secretary of the association today mentioned that it is not the time for the political parties of the State to play the blame game and also expressed disappointment at the ruling BJP party leader for still making useless assurances and promises instead of taking up a concrete stand against the CAB.

It further mentioned that the association will fully support the movements taken up by the public and CSOs of the State against the Bill and appealed to the State Government to do the needful to withdraw the Bill completely at the earliest.

AR organises veterinary medical camp

IMPHAL, Feb 10: Tulihal Battalion of 9 Sector AR, under the aegis of IGAR (South), with the assistance of 14 Mobile Field Veterinary Hospital (MFVH), 3 Army Dog Unit and Department of Veterinary and Animal Husbandry, Manipur conducted a day long free veterinary camp at Meitram village today.

A team comprising of one officer and two nursing assistants of the Indian Army, along with three doctors and four nursing assistants from Animal Husbandry Department, provided free medical treatment to the livestock of the locals. Livestock from around 20 villages were administered free medical treatment along with providing medicine and vaccination.

Approximately 1500 animals were provided medicines and vaccination during the camp.

Dr Laishram Gojen

Singh, Deputy Director, Department of Veterinary and Animal Husbandry, also voluntarily participated in the veterinary medical camp to support the good cause for welfare of people.

He not only rendered free medical assistance but also delivered a lecture on the various diseases affecting the animals and their preventive measures.

The villagers conveyed their heartfelt gratitude to Assam Rifles for extending these services and for the provision of free medical treatment and medicines for their livestock and pets. They also requested the Assam Rifles to continue organising such medical camps in future as well.

Seminar on quality education and positive parenting held

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Feb 10: UNACCO School, Meitram Makha Leikai, Imphal West organized a seminar on the topic "Quality School Education & Positive Parenting" at its premises today.

Imperial School, Tanzania CEO and UNACCO School Principal Adviser Arup Mukhopadhyay, preschool expert and Oberoi International School, Mumbai coach Khushbu Gajakas, UNACCO School Chairman N Irabanta Singh and Ashutosh Rastogi, Principal UNACCO School, Meitram among others attended the function as the presidium members and resource persons.

Speaking at the function, Arup Mukhopadhyay pointed out the adverse impacts of the contemporary education system, which presents a cut throat competition among students.

He said that parents, teachers and all concerned, should come out of this kind of education system saying that it (the said education system) makes the children, who fail to fulfil the wishes of their parents, the victims. Stating that the education system in the present days no longer have room for inculcating certain aspects like socialization, logical thinking and other life related things to the students, the Principal Adviser contended that it is essential to ensure that students learn enthusiastically and deservingly in academic education. Khushbu Gajakas underscored the importance of making parents and children conscious about what is happening around the world and emphasizing more on developing life skills, such as creativity, competence and logical thinking among students while imparting education.

She observed that parents need to go beyond text books and ask the right and comprehensive questions to their children while dealing with them.

Irabanta noted that education is the foundation and backbone for ensuring a society is prosperous and peaceful.

Maintaining that the world has changed a lot from the past and will change a lot in the next 20 or 30 years, the Chairman also stressed on the need for grooming students with wider scope of education so that they will be able to meet the requirements in their future.
